

Problems set.06

DEADLINE: 31th of March.

01.

Write a C code defines a structure for employees that contains his salary, bonus and deductions. The program shall ask the user to enter this information for three employees (Mohsen, Maged and Mariam). Then the program will print the total values supplied by the finance team.

02.

Write a C code to manage a class of 10 students. Each student studies 4 subjects Programming, Data Structures, Discrete Math and Algorithms.

First define an array of 10 elements and assign random grades for students. The system will ask the user to enter the student ID then the system will show its grades. The software shall manage wrong IDs and enable admins to manipulate the grades of the students.